Privacy Declaration

St. George's Hurstville Anglican Church is exempt from the requirements of the Privacy Act 1988 as it is a "small business". However, we seek to deal carefully with the personal information we collect and to do so in a manner consistent with your reasonable expectations.

The personal information in this form will be made available to:

- the church leaders, including the youth leaders, involved in the running of the activities in which my child participates, and
- medical and emergency services if considered necessary.

Authorisations & Expectations

- I give permission for photos and videos of my child taken to be displayed publicly (online and in print).
- I give permission for my child to participate in online video meetings and for them to be recorded.
- I give permission for my child to attend all church activities including youth group and the mentoring program.
- I give permission for my child to make their own way to and back from all church activities including youth group and the mentoring program.
- I give permission for my child to travel in a car driven by an approved leader or parent who does not hold a learner or provisional red license.
- I authorize the church to obtain at my expense any medical (including taking paracetamol), ambulance, rescue or other services that are considered necessary for my child.
- I acknowledge that being part of a community involves mutual care and consideration, and therefore agree that unacceptable behavior may result in my child being sent home and being temporarily or permanently prohibited from attending church activities.
- I understand that the church will not be held liable for any property loss or damage or any physical injuries.
- I will provide the church with any information relevant to the wellbeing of my child prior to him or her attending a church activity.
- I confirm that the information given in this form is true and correct and will advise the church of any changes.
